The screenshot shows the CNET Download.com website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'cnet Download.com' and a search bar. Below that, there are tabs for 'Reviews', 'News', 'Downloads', and 'Video'. The 'Downloads' tab is active, and there are sub-tabs for 'Windows Software', 'Mac Software', 'Mobile Apps', and 'Web Apps'. The main content area displays the breadcrumb path: 'Home > Windows Software > Security Software > Spyware Removers > Ad-Aware Free Internet Security'. A green heading reads 'Welcome Ad-Aware Free Internet Security users'. Below this, it says 'To complete your download, click on the link below:'. A large green button with a white checkmark icon and the text 'Download Now' is prominently displayed, with a yellow arrow pointing to it. Below the button, it says 'Ad-Aware Free Internet Security Version 9.0 File size: 124.32MB'. To the right, there's a 'Recommended Download' section for 'SPYWARE Doctor with AntiVirus 2011', featuring a 'DOWNLOAD HERE' button. At the bottom, there's a '3 Steps for a faster install & scan' section with a 'START DOWNLOAD' button, and a 'Join CNET' sidebar on the right.

A File Download Box will appear. Click on the Run button. The installation should begin. Once it's completed, click on the Run button. More status bars will appear.

Next, the Ad-Aware wizard will begin. Follow each step until it is finished. When the task is complete it will automatically close. If a pop-up like the one below appears, click Cancel.

A final taskbar will appear. When it had completed click the Finish button. Ad-Aware 2009 will automatically open. Click on the Scan Now button to scan your computer.

A status bar will appear showing the progress of the scan. When a Scan Summary appears, the scan is complete. You may now exit the program.
