

April 2010

uschess.org

Chess Life

The world's most widely read chess magazine

Rural CHESS

Organizing a successful chess club
away from a major population center

U.S. Chess Federation Publication $3.95

Columns

- 12 LOOKS AT BOOKS
Talking A Good Game
By Al Lawrence
- 14 CHESS TO ENJOY
Getting the Upper "Hand"
By GM Andy Soltis
- 16 SOLITAIRE CHESS
The Sixth World Champion
By Bruce Pandolfini
- 50 BACK TO BASICS
Press On!
By GM Lev Alburt
- 52 ENDGAME LAB
Blitz!
By GM Pal Benko
- 54 WHAT'S THE BEST MOVE?
62nd Russian Championship
By GM Larry Evans

Departments

- 3  PREVIEW
- 6 COUNTERPLAY
- 8 FIRST MOVES
- 10 USCF AFFAIRS
- 11 CANDIDATE STATEMENTS
- 58 TOURNAMENT LIFE
- 78 CLASSIFIEDS
- 79 SOLUTIONS

On The Cover

Sure, in this Internet age, running a chess club can be a challenge. But what if you add to the difficulty by trying to run a club away from a major population center? See our advice on how to accomplish this, whether near a pasture or on campus, beginning on page 18.

Design by Frankie Butler

18 | COVER STORY

The Country Club: Rural America Plays Chess

BY GLEN SCHMIEGE

How to build a chess club away from a major population center.

Chess In Rural Arkansas

BY ROBERT S. GRABER, PH.D., & GUY NELSON, M.S.

College chess clubs are making a splash in major metro areas like Dallas and Baltimore. How can a rural college keep up?

26 | SCHOLASTICS

OMG! Ong Is Big Winner at National K-12

BY POLLY WRIGHT

Our annual look at the grade level championships includes a look at the NYA championships, penned by Alex Betaneli.

34 | 2009 N. AMERICAN OPEN

Five Say, "Viva Vegas!"

BY RANDY HOUGH

Five GMs top mammoth Vegas tournament.

39 | 2009 YEARBOOK

2009 Annual USCF Yearbook

Our annual listing of all things USCF.

43 | WIJK AAN ZEE

Carlsen Wins in Wijk aan Zee

BY GM IAN ROGERS

Nakamura stars in Grand Slam debut.

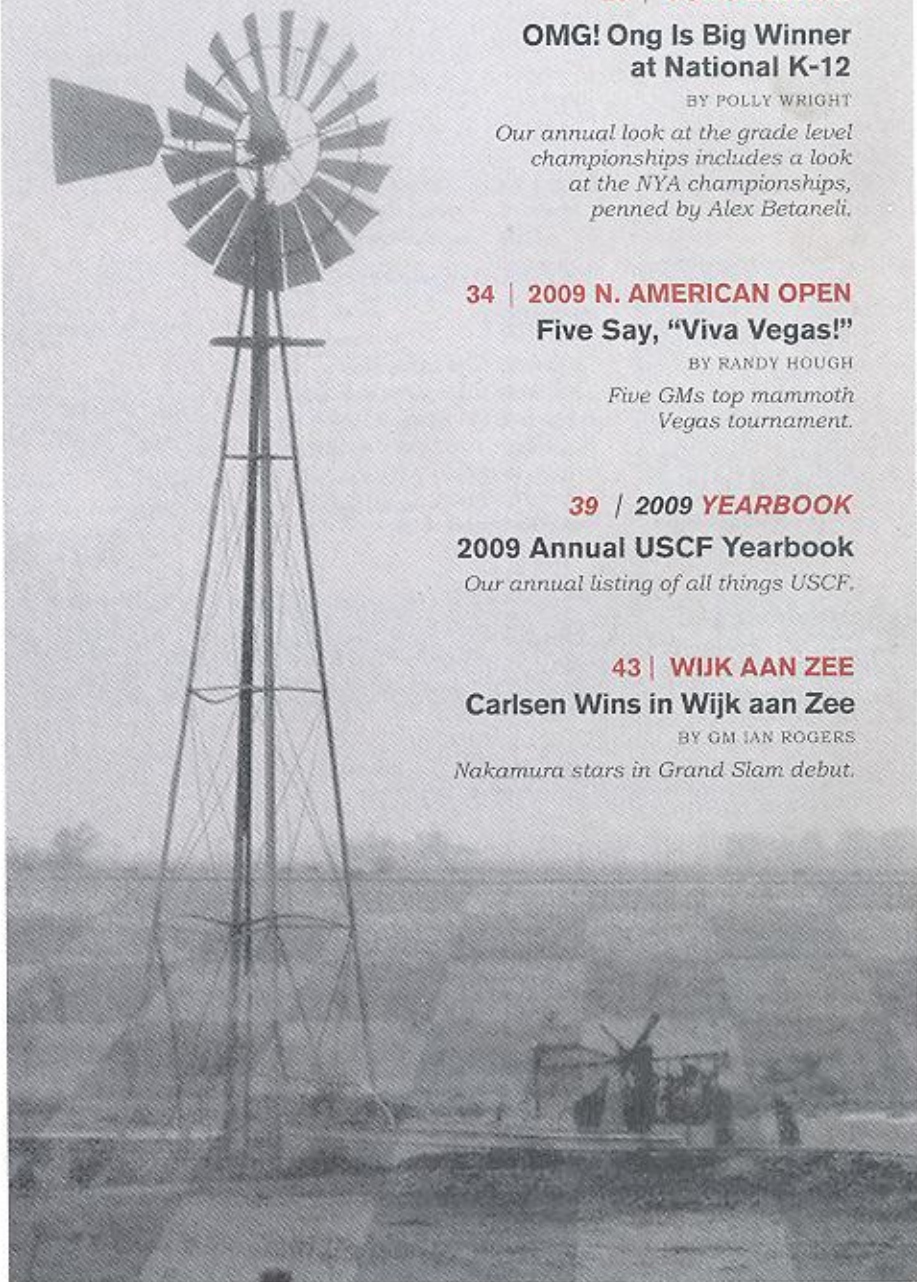

PHOTO BY PINK SHERBET PHOTOGRAPHY