

The University of Arkansas at Monticello strives to be a place of work and study free from all forms of discrimination, sexual intimidation and exploitation. In accordance with the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. Sec.1681, et seq., which prohibits all recipients of federal funds from discriminating on the basis of gender in its educational programs and activities, the University will not tolerate sexual discrimination. Sexual discrimination includes all forms of: sexual harassment, sexual assault, and sexual violence by an individual against employees, students, or third parties. The University will respond promptly to all complaints of sexual discrimination. Any person having inquiries concerning the University's compliance with regulations implementing Title IX or having a need to report an act of sexual harassment or discrimination is directed to contact the appropriate Title IX Coordinator listed below.

REPORTING A SEXUAL ASSAULT

Although it may be extremely difficult, it is always best to report an act of sexual violence (rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, and sexual coercion) to:

UAM Public Safety
(870) 460-1083 or (870) 460-1000
Mr. John Kidwell
kidwell@uamont.edu
Office of Public Safety
284 University Drive
Monticello, AR 71656

Individuals may also report a sexual assault to:

Monticello Police Department (870) 367-3411

Drew County Sheriff's Office (870) 367-6211
Ashley County Sheriff's Office (870) 853-2040
McGehee Police Department (870) 222-3636

Students who have been victims of sexual assault may receive help through private and confidential counseling sessions (at no cost) in the UAM Office of Counseling Services. The Director of Counseling in conjunction with the Dean of Students, will assist sexual assault victims with personal trauma, police interview, and the filing of criminal charges should the victim wish to do so.

Director of Counseling Services
Mrs. Laura Hughes
(870) 460-1454
hughesl@uamont.edu
Harris Hall, Room 201
