

PROGRAM INFORMATION

The Master of Arts in Teaching program prepares highly qualified career-changing professionals and recent graduates of higher education to be Arkansas classroom teachers.

The MAT graduate degree program is:

- Designed for individuals without teaching credentials but who have completed a baccalaureate degree and wish to become a teacher expeditiously.
- Intended to assist potential teachers, those having a baccalaureate degree in a content area, to become practicing educators.
- A 30-hour graduate degree program with three tracks: K-6 Elementary, 4-8 Middle Level, and Secondary/K-12.

OR

- A 36-hour graduate degree program for Special Education.

5. Special Education (K-12)

What is a provisional license?

A provisional license is a teaching license that allows you to be hired and work as a teacher in Arkansas while you are still in the MAT program and completing the MAT program requirements. For information on the Provisional license, see the Provisional License Section of this handbook.

Does the UAM School of Education find a job for me?

No. The School of Education will send your name and contact information to area schools and will provide you with information about job openings as the schools notify us. For additional information on securing a teaching position, see the Steps to Securing a Teaching Position Section of this handbook.

Will this program license me in states other than Arkansas?

No. Every state controls its own licensing requirements. However, once you have a license in Arkansas, you can apply for reciprocity to other states for a transfer of your license.
