

Graduate Council Membership 2021-2022

UAM's Graduate Programs

The Graduate Council is a policy making body with responsibility delegated to it by the graduate faculty. The Council, chaired by the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs or his/her designated representative, determines its own procedures and interprets its own actions. In cooperation with the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, the Graduate Council implements guidelines for graduate education and develops policies and procedures concerning matters such as admission criteria, graduate courses, proposals for new graduate courses, and the evaluation of the quality of graduate education.
